

Some men see things as they are and say, why. I dream things that never were and say, why not.

Robert F. Kennedy

Hawtharne

Dedicated to his work and students . . . interested . . . striving for a new and better way in education . . . looking for the best in his students . . . open minded . . . possessing high ideals . . . smiling . . . encouraging

In only two short years, he has won the respect and admiration of the students of Mount Olive College.

To Mr. Kenneth Dilda we dedicate the 1972 Olive Leaves.

. . . We are all idealists. We are all visionories. Let it not be said af this Atlantic generation that we left ideals and visions to the past, nor purpose and determination to auradversories. We have came too far, we have sacrificed too much, to disdain the future naw.

John F. Kennedy

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stors; You have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to yau, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whotever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations.

In the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beoutiful world. Be careful. Strive ta be happy.

From Desiderata

Look well to this day! For it is life; the very life of life. In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence. The bliss of growth, the glory of action, The splendor of beauty; For yesterday is only a dream, Tomorrow only a vision: But today, well lived, makes of every yesterday A dream of happiness and of every tomorrow a vision of hope. Look well, therefore, to this day.

NIGHT

Stars over snow,
And in the west a planet
Swinging below a star — Loak far a lovely thing and
yau will find it,
It is not for —
It never will be.

CARRY YOUR LOAD

Meet me on the highway
Meet me on the road
As long as you've got to travel
Don't you want someone to help you carry your load?

First time out is a heady feeling
White clouds under my feet
Soilin' along like a south wind
Over fields of whispering wheat
Thinkin' alone on a Thursday morning
Of peace and love and war
I still don't have any answer
But I don't get high anymore

Some folks are forever movin'
Some folks gotta be still
Don't let it get you; there's joy in either
So do what you will
Everyone knows it's the same old feeling
Worlds below the sea
Just you and me and easy
Is where I want to be

Meet me on the highway
Meet me on the road
As long as you've got to travel
Don't you wont someone to help you carry your load?

Carole King

To accomplish great things, we must nat only act but also dream not only plan but also believe.

Anotole France

Nobody can tell yo
There's only one song worth singing
They may try and sell ya
Because it hangs them up to see someone like you. . .
But you gotto moke your own kind of music
Sing your own special song
Moke your own kind of music
even if nobody else sings olong.

You're gonna be nowhere The loneliest kind of lonely It moy be rough goin' just to do your thing The hardest thing to do

So if you cannot take my hand And if you must be goin' I will understand you gotto. . . Make your own kind of music Sing your own special song Make your own kind of music Even if nobody else sings along.

Recorded by Momo Cass

And is not time even as love is, undivided and paceless?

But if in your thought you must measure time into seasons,
Let each season encircle all the other seasons,
And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing.

Kahlil Gibran from The Prophet

Life isn't all yau want, but it's all yau have. Sa what I say is: Have it! Stick a geranium in your hat and be happy.

Fram "Cantentment Is" compiled by Gilbert Hay

It is a mistoke to look too far ahead. Only one link in the chain of destiny can be handled at a time.

Winston Churchill

WHAT A DIFFERENCE

What a difference a dream can make —
It can alter the whole way life may toke,
It can give us the power and courage to do
Whatever is needed to see our way through.
It can calor our thinking and brighten aur days.
It can change our lives in a thousand ways.
A dream can lend credence and beauty and glary
To every chapter of anyone's story.
A dream is worth trying, if just for the sake
Of seeing the difference a great dream can make.

Unknown

We warry as though we had a thousand years to live!

Let us rather always strive after the gentle humar of the heart,

Which knaws haw to smile at the world, at our fellow men and at itself

And which can stand a little above things.

Nica

Sooner or later, a man, if he is wise, Discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

Wilferd Peterson

I'll hold my condle high, ond then Perhaps I'll see the hearts of men Above the sordidness of life, Beyond misunderstandings, strife. Though many deeds that others do Seem foolish, rash and sinful too, Just who om I to criticize What I perceive with my dull eyes? I'll hold my candle high, and then, Perhaps I'll see the hearts of men.

The best portion of a good man's life —
His little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love.

William Wordsworth

Out of the sad mistaken belief that as a mon I must behave
as oll men da,
I've turned my bock a time
too often.
God,
help me keep a resolution that I make today:
not to walk head high

even one more time

post someone I can help.

Rod McKuen

Aim for a Star

Aim for a starl Never be satisfied With a life that is less than the best, Failure lies only in not having tried — In keeping the soul suppressed.

Aim for a starl Look up and away,
And follow its beckoning beam.
Make each Tomorrow a better Today —
And don't be afraid to dream.

Aim for a star, and keep your sights high! With a heartful of faith within, Your feet on the ground, and your eyes on the sky, Some day you are bound to win!

Helen Lowrie Marshall

I am not bound to win,
But I am bound to be true.
I am not bound to succeed,
But I am bound to live up to what light I have.
I must stand with anybody
that stands right;
Stand with him while he is right,
And part with him when he goes wrong.

No man is an island, entire of itself;

every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea,

Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were,

as well as if a manor of thy friends' or of thine own were: any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell talls; it talls for thee.

THE MAN WHO THINKS HE CAN

If you think you are beaten, you are:

If you think you dare not, you don't;

If you'd like to win, but think you can't,

It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're

For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will:

It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;

You've got to think high to rise. You've got to be sure of yourself before

You can win a prize, Life's battles don't always go To the stronger or faster man; But soon or late the man who

Is the man who thinks he can.

THESE WE HAVE KNOWN

These we have known together — Hundreds of happy hours, Beautiful, bright thue weather, Rainbows following showers,

Comfortable silence, and loughter, So many shored memories — No matter what follows after, Nothing can take away these.

Small private jukes and the stories Amusing to us alone; Life's little triumphs and glories, Marking each happy milestone.

Dreams that we shared in the making, And watching a few come true; Failures the easier taking Because we were always two.

Love in its full completeness, Life its abundant best — Nothing can ofter the sweetness We have been truly blest.

Live each day to the fullest. Get the most from each hour, each day, and each age of your life. Then you can look forward with confidence. and back without rearets. Be yourself — but be your best self. Dare to be different and to follow your own star. And don't be afraid to be happy. Enjoy what is beautiful. Love with all your heart and soul. Believe that those you love, love you. Learn to forgive yourself for your faults, for this is the first step in learning to forgive others. Listen to those whom the world may consider uninteresting, for each person has, in himself, something of worth. Disregard what the world owes you, and concentrate on what you owe the world. Forget what you have done for your friends, and remember what they have done for you. No matter how troublesome the cares of life may seem to you at times, this is still a beautiful world... and you are at home in it. as a child is at home in his father's house. When you are faced with a decision, make that decision as wisely as possible then forget it. The moment of absolute certainty never arrives. Above all, remember that God helps those who help themselves. Act as if everything depended upon you, and pray as if everything depended upon God.
